robes and new curtains. The new black door handles gives a great pop of colour. With new paint and carpet you can add your own personalization and splash of colour to your new home.

The bathroom has a separate shower and bath and an ample sized vanity and a large window with new pull down blind for that little extra privacy. A separate toilet is located nearby.

Decent sized laundry with room for the washer and dryer plus a linen cupboard for storage. You also have yard access to the clothesline directly from the laundry.

Outside you will find a great sized entertainment area and fencing from the side of the house to include the backyard. The garden is generally a blank canvas to choose your own style, but there are some established bushes. A garden shed will take care of the tools. The single garage also offers drive through access to the side of the house.
